Data Privacy Notice

Your privacy is important to us. We will process your personal data in accordance with data protection laws.

Ecclesiastical Insurance Office PLC is the data controller in respect of any personal data which you provide to us or which we hold about you and any personal data which is processed in connection with the services we provide to you.

Where you provide us with personal data about a person other than yourself (such as a dependant or named person under a policy), you must inform them that you are providing their personal data to us and refer them to this notice.

To provide our insurance related services, we will collect and process your personal data such as your name, contact details, financial information and any information which is relevant to the insurance policy we are providing. In order to provide your insurance policy or when making a claim, we may also need to collect or process 'special categories of personal data' such as information relating to your health or criminal convictions or information which is likely to reveal your religious beliefs.

We process your personal data for the purposes of offering and carrying out insurance related services to you or to an organisation or other persons which you represent. Your personal data is also used for business purposes such as fraud prevention, business management, systems development and carrying out statistical and strategic analysis.

Providing our services will involve sharing your personal data with, and obtaining information about you from, our group companies and third parties such as brokers, loss adjusters, credit reference agencies, fraud prevention agencies, our service providers and professional advisors, or business partners and our regulators.

In some circumstances we may transfer your personal data to countries outside of the European Economic Area. We will put appropriate safeguards in place to ensure that your personal data is protected.

Where we have your consent, we may market our services to you or provide your personal data to our related companies or business partners for marketing purposes. You can opt out of marketing communications at any time by contacting us.

Fraud Prevention

We need to carry out fraud and anti-money laundering checks and this will involve sharing your personal data (such as your name, contact details and financial information) with credit reference and fraud prevention organisations such as the Claims and Underwriting Exchange, run by MIB. If you make a claim, we will share your personal data (to the extent necessary) with other companies including other insurers and anti-fraud organisations to prevent fraud. For the purposes of deciding whether to accept and pay a claim or any part of it, we may appoint loss adjusters or external investigation services to act on our behalf.

If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, your personal data will be passed to fraud prevention agencies including the Insurance Fraud Register, run by the Insurance Fraud Bureau. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information.

Please note that when carrying out any fraud prevention activities, we may need to process your special categories of data such as criminal offence information and share it with fraud prevention agencies.

Further Information

For further information on how your personal data is used and your rights in relation to your personal data please refer to our Privacy Policy at www.ansvar.co.uk/privacypolicy or contact our Data Protection Officer at Beaufort House, Brunswick Road, Gloucester GL1 1JZ or on 0345 6073274 or email compliance@ansvar.co.uk.

THE CONTRACT OF INSURANCE

- This Statement of Facts must be read in conjunction with the schedule and forms part of your contract of insurance with Ansvar Insurance (we/us/our).
- If the premium is to be paid by instalments, our application form must be fully completed and received by us within 14 days of cover being incepted/renewed, otherwise payment by instalments will not be accepted by us.
- You must make sure that the information provided to us for this policy is, and will continue to be, accurate and not misleading and is a fair presentation of the risks we are accepting. In respect of the policy renewal, this includes any changes occurring during the last period of insurance. If any of the information you provide is not accurate or is misleading then we may reduce the amount we pay for any claim, or in some cases, make no payment at all, cancel your policy and retain the premium. You should keep a record (including copies of letters) of any information you give to your insurance advisor or us when renewing your policy.
- You must carefully check all policy documentation and certificates. If there are any inaccuracies then you must tell your insurance advisor or us immediately.
- Any policy issued will be governed by the law of England unless your legally registered address is located in Scotland in which case the law of Scotland will apply. If there is any dispute as to which law applies it shall be English law.
- We will communicate with you in English at all times.
- Your insurance advisor will be regarded as your agent acting on your behalf, and not on behalf of us, in respect of any information that has been provided by them.
- Our policy cover is underwritten by Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc. The Legal Expenses cover is dealt with by DAS Legal Expenses Insurance Company Limited.
